U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

CA 12- 544 M

COMPLAINT FOR DECLATORY JUDGMENT AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

This claim is brought pursuant to the provisions of the Declaratory Judgment Act and as such fall within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court.

Parties

1. Plaintiff(s) Robert S. Berrillo and Jane M. Berrillo (hereinafter referred to as "Berrillo") is a resident of the State of Rhode Island. The subject property is located in 441 Broadway, Providence, RI.
2. Downey Savings and Loan Association, FA ("DOWNEY") has a mailing address of 3501 Jamboree Rd., 3rd Floor N. Tower, Newport Beach, CA 92660. DOWNEY was the alleged Lender and Mortgagee.
3. Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. ("MERS") has a mailing address of PO Box 2026, Flint, MI 48501. MERS allegedly received an assignment from Downey.
4. Central Mortgage Company ("Central") has a mailing address of 801 John Barrow Road, Suite 1, Little Rock, Arkansas 72205. Central was the alleged foreclosing entity.
5. Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, as Trustee for Downey 2004-AR2 ("Deutsche Bank") has a mailing address of 801 John Barrow Road, Suite 1, Little Rock, Arkansas 72205. Deutsche Bank was the alleged foreclosing entity.

Jurisdiction

6. This Honorable Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 (diversity jurisdiction) and the matter in controversy exceeds $75,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs, and because the Defendant is a foreign corporation based outside of the State of Rhode Island.
7. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 b) (2) in that a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this claim have occurred, and the real property that is the subject of this action is situated within the State of Rhode Island.
8. Plaintiff further avers that the Court has redressible claims over the matters in this complaint pursuant to the following statutes:
 - a. Plaintiff, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 claims loss of state property rights to redeem her mortgage from an unauthorized foreclosure advertiser without a judicial hearing.
 - b. Plaintiff claims ownership of the latter described premises and seeks to clear her title of all illegal encumbrances pursuant to the provisions of Rhode Island General Laws § 34-16-4.
 - c. Plaintiff claims ownership of the latter described premises and seeks to clear her title of all void conveyances pursuant to the provisions of Rhode Island General Laws § 34-16-4.
 - d. Plaintiff claims that only she has a marketable title to the premises pursuant to the provisions of R.I.G.L. § 34-13.1-5, to wit, forty (40) years of ownership of the fee interest.
 - e. Plaintiff as a mortgagor, may seek to redeem, pursuant to R.I.G.L. § 34-26-1, her mortgage note and mortgage deed from the actual mortgagee, or lawful assignee of the mortgage deed and note.
 - f. Plaintiff claims a judicial determination pursuant to R.I.G.L. § 9-30-2 whether the deed to the premises is affected by any conveyance of another person in her chain of title.

Facts

9. On November 10, 2004, Berrillo executed a mortgage (the "Mortgage") which named DOWNEY as Lender and mortgagee.
10. On March 4, 2006, DOWNEY attempted to assign this Mortgage to MERS. ("Assignment") Crystal Moore signed. Crystal Moore had no authority to assign.

11. Crystal Moore was an employee at Nationwide Title Clearing.
12. Downey did not order the assignment to MERS.
13. Crystal Moore was attempting to assign the mortgage for Nationwide Title Clearing, not Downey.
14. There is no recorded power of attorney granting Crystal Moore authority to execute assignments for DOWNEY.
15. Crystal Moore was a robo-signer and did not have the requisite intent to assign.
16. The subject assignment is Crystal Moore's attempt to defraud the general public and the Land Evidence Records by manufacturing standing to foreclose in MERS.
17. The referenced power of attorney is of no force and effect.
18. Nationwide Title Clearing cannot assign anything it does not own.
19. Nationwide Title Clearing never holds the beneficial interest in the subject property.
20. The beneficial interest in the property can only be transferred through negotiation of the promissory note.
21. An assignment of the mortgage without a corresponding negotiation of the promissory note is a nullity.
22. The assignment was executed on March 4, 2006.
23. The assignment has an alleged effective date of December 1, 2005.
24. The discrepancy in dates renders the assignment void.
25. The assignment is void pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-11-1.
26. The "Assignment" is fatally flawed in its execution and effect by virtue of the fact that it was not assigned by the mortgagee as required by General Laws of Rhode Island at §34-11-24.
27. Nationwide Title Clearing never received any interest in the property to transfer to MERS.
28. Nationwide Title Clearing never held the legal or beneficial interest in the subject premises.

29. The assignment from Nationwide Title Clearing to MERS is void due to failure of consideration.
30. On March 24, 2009, MERS attempted to assign this Mortgage to Central.
("Assignment") Dorcas Tiller signed. Dorcas Tiller had no authority to assign.
31. Dorcas Tiller was an employee at Central, not MERS.
32. MERS did not order the assignment to Central.
33. Dorcas Tiller was attempting to assign the mortgage for Central, not MERS.
34. There is no recorded power of attorney granting Dorcas Tiller or Central authority to execute assignments for MERS.
35. Dorcas Tiller was a robo-signer and did not have the requisite intent to assign.
36. The subject assignment is Dorcas Tiller's attempt to defraud the general public and the Land Evidence Records by manufacturing standing to foreclose in Central.
37. The referenced power of attorney is of no force and effect.
38. MERS cannot assign anything it does not own.
39. MERS never holds the beneficial interest in the subject property.
40. The beneficial interest in the property can only be transferred through negotiation of the promissory note.
41. An assignment of the mortgage without a corresponding negotiation of the promissory note is a nullity.
42. The assignment is void as MERS never held the note.
43. The assignment is void pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-11-1.
44. The "Assignment" is fatally flawed in its execution and effect by virtue of the fact that it was not assigned by the mortgagee as required by General Laws of Rhode Island at §34-11-24.
45. MERS never received any interest in the property to transfer to Central.
46. MERS never held the legal or beneficial interest in the subject premises.
47. The assignment from MERS to Central is void due to failure of consideration.

48. Central had no standing to foreclose.
49. Central was not the true foreclosing entity.
50. On March 3, 2012, Central attempted to convey this property to Deutsche. ("Assignment").
51. Central did not hold the note or the mortgage at the time of the foreclosure sale.
52. Deutsche was the true foreclosing entity.
53. The Mortgage, at page 1, defines the Lender as DOWNEY.
54. The Mortgage contains language that provides for the Statutory Power of Sale in the event of a default on the note by Berrillo.
55. At Paragraph 22 of the Mortgage, entitled "Acceleration; Remedies", it states that "Lender shall give notice to Borrower prior to acceleration following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument (but not prior to acceleration under Section 18 unless Applicable Law provides otherwise). The notice shall specify: (a) the default; (b) the action required to cure the default; (c) a date, not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given to Borrower, by which the default must be cured; and (d) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Security Instrument and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform Borrower of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to bring a court action to assert the non-existence of a default or any other defense of Borrower to acceleration and sale. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender at its option may require immediate payment in full of sums secured by this Security Instrument without further demand and may invoke the STATUTORY POWER OF SALE and any other remedies permitted by Applicable Law. Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this Section 22, including but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence.

If Lender invokes the STATUTORY POWER OF SALE, Lender shall mail a copy of a notice of sale to Borrower as provided in Section 15. Lender shall publish the notice of sale, and the Property shall be sold in the manner prescribed by Applicable Law, Lender or its designee may purchase the Property at any sale. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the following order: (a) to all expense of the sale, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees; (b) to all sums secured by this Security Instrument; and (c) any excess to the person or persons legally entitled to it." (emphasis added)

56. The mortgage does not state anywhere that the mortgagee or its assigns may invoke the Statutory Power of Sale.
57. The Lender never invoked the statutory power of sale in this matter.
58. The Lender never mailed a notice of sale to the Borrower.
59. The Lender never published the notice of sale.
60. MERS, which is not the Lender, wrongly and without contractual or statutory authority, attempted to invoke the power of sale.
61. MERS, which is not the Lender, wrongly published the notice of sale without contractual or statutory authority.
62. The actions taken by MERS are without any force or effect relative to the invocation of the statutory power of sale or the actual sale of the property because it is not now, nor has it ever been the Lender as defined by both the note and the mortgage.
63. Central, which is not the Lender, wrongly and without contractual or statutory authority, attempted to invoke the power of sale.
64. Central, which is not the Lender, wrongly published the notice of sale without contractual or statutory authority.
65. The actions taken by Central are without any force or effect relative to the invocation of the statutory power of sale or the actual sale of the property because it is not now, nor has it ever been the Lender as defined by both the note and the mortgage.
66. Deutsche Bank, which is not the Lender, wrongly and without contractual or statutory authority, attempted to invoke the power of sale.
67. Deutsche Bank, which is not the Lender, wrongly published the notice of sale without contractual or statutory authority.
68. The actions taken by Deutsche Bank are without any force or effect relative to the invocation of the statutory power of sale or the actual sale of the property because it is not now, nor has it ever been the Lender as defined by both the note and the mortgage.
69. The foreclosure sale was not noticed or scheduled or advertised as required by the Note and Mortgage.
70. To foreclose pursuant to §34-11-22, the language of the Statute and the Note and Mortgage must be followed to the letter.

71. The foreclosure is not in compliance with statutory mandates and is not in compliance with the plain language in the Note and Mortgage.
72. MERS has no standing to foreclose.
73. Central has no standing to foreclose.
74. Deutsche Bank has no standing to foreclose.
75. The Lender in this case was the only party, pursuant to the plain language of the mortgage, which was prepared by and used by the Defendant or Defendants, and in the event of any inconsistencies in said document, said inconsistencies and the results thereof are the fault of the Defendant or Defendants and the negative results thereof shall be construed against the Defendant or Defendants.
76. The facts and documents relative to this matter establish that any foreclosure relative to this property must be done judicially and not by way of advertisement and auction due to failure to exactly follow the letter of the law.
77. This claim is brought pursuant to the provisions of the Declaratory Judgment pursuant to the act.
78. This is a justiciable controversy and is appropriate for Declaratory Judgment pursuant to the act.
79. The note is current or has been satisfied by another third party.
80. DOWNEY never transferred possession of or negotiated the promissory note to MERS, Central, and Deutsche Bank.
81. Deutsche Bank does not possess the promissory note.
82. The promissory note was never specially endorsed to Deutsche Bank.
83. Deutsche Bank does not have the right to enforce the promissory note.
84. The note is no longer recognized as an asset or account receivable of DOWNEY.
85. The note is no longer recognized as an asset or account receivable of MERS.
86. The note is no longer recognized as an asset or account receivable of Central.
87. The note was no longer recognized as an asset or account receivable of Deutsche Bank.
88. Deutsche Bank does not hold the note.

89. The mortgage is unsecured.
90. The mortgage is void due to fraud.
91. The mortgage is void pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-11-1.
92. The mortgage is unsecured pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-4-11.
93. The note is void due to fraud.
94. DOWNEY was not the true Lender in the underlying mortgage transaction.
95. The funds to fund the transaction came from a third party, not DOWNEY.
96. The non-existence of a default on the promissory note is not a prerequisite to remedies under the Quietening Title statute.
97. Plaintiffs have standing to challenge title and all assignments of the subject mortgage.
98. Plaintiffs have standing to clear title pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-16-4.
99. Plaintiffs have standing to challenge all assignments and foreclosure deeds pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-16-4.

COUNT I
Declaratory Judgment

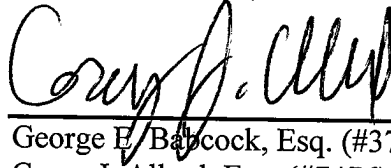

100. The Plaintiff herein reincorporates paragraphs 1-99 as if they are fully articulated herein.
101. By virtue of these facts and the legal consequence thereof, the foreclosure failed to vest title in Deutsche Bank or the successful bidder at the foreclosure sale.
102. Berrillo owns the subject property.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court to issue an order, pursuant to the Uniform Declaratory Judgment Act, as follows:

- a. That judgment enters for Plaintiff on Plaintiff's Complaint regarding title to and ownership of the subject property.
- b. That the Court finds that Plaintiff owns the property as a matter of law.

- c. That the foreclosure sale be voided.
- d. Only Plaintiff has marketable title pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-13-1-1, et al.
- e. That the Court or other trier of fact order the defendants to pay Plaintiff's damages, which it deems appropriate.
- f. Declare the conveyance void pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-11-1.
- g. Declare the assignment void pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-11-1 and §34-11-24.
- h. Declare the acknowledgment void pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-12-1, et al.
- i. That the Court or other trier of fact award Plaintiff's costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.

COUNT II
Quieting Title
Rhode Island General Law §34-16-4

- 103. The Plaintiff herein reincorporates paragraphs 1-102 as if they are articulated herein.
- 104. The real estate at issue is a residential property located at 441 Broadway, Providence, RI.
- 105. Deutsche Bank or its successors claim to have the right to foreclose on the property. The address of Deutsche Bank is set forth hereinabove.
- 106. Plaintiff purchased the property on December 24, 2004.
- 107. Deutsche Bank or the successful bidder at the foreclosure sale took a foreclosure deed.

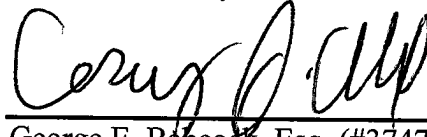

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- a. That judgment enters for Plaintiff on Plaintiff's complaint regarding title and ownership of the subject property.
- b. That the Court finds that Plaintiff owns the property as a matter of law.
- c. That the Court order any foreclosure sale voided.

- d. That the Court enters an order quieting title to this property specifying that Plaintiff owns a fee simple interest in the subject property.
- e. That the Court or other trier of fact award Plaintiff costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.
